Re: United States v. Giorgi Buleishvili, 14-CR-773

Dear Judge Abrams:

On July 21, 2020, Mr. Buleishvili filed a petition pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255. On July 23, the Court granted Mr. Buleishvili's separate request for the appointment of counsel, and appointed me from the Southern District's CJA panel. On September 24, the Court granted my request for an extension of my briefing deadline due to the difficulties I was encountering in reaching Mr. Buleishvili.

I realize that this deadline passed two days ago, and I apologize. I seek the Court's indulgence and request one final extension of two weeks. I finally spoke to Mr. Buleishvili two weeks ago, and had another legal call scheduled for yesterday. Unfortunately, the legal call was not made by the facility, and so I requested another call for tomorrow. Once I speak with Mr. Buleishvili again, I will be able to make a submission expeditiously.

Once again, I apologize for the delays, and respectfully request a 2 week extension to November 11, 2020.

Thank you for your consideration.

Application granted. Accordingly, the deadline for the Government's opposition is also adjourned two weeks. The Government shall file its opposition brief no later than December 7, 2020.
SO ORDERED.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

Florian Miedel
